

Water not safe to drink

The following unregulated wells were tested by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency, Navajo Nation EPA, or the Center for Disease Control and found to contain unsafe levels of Uranium.

People should not drink water from these wells:

Well ID	Chapter
16B-38 (CCC-E-9)	Baca, N.M.
16T-521-Platero Well	Baca, N.M.
Badger Spring (Black Falls)	Cameron, Ariz.
Paddock Well (Black Falls)	Cameron, Ariz.
3A-155-Tohatchi Spring (Black Falls)	Cameron, Ariz.
16-4-10-Lime Ridge/Pine Tree Well	Churchrock, N.M.
17M-99 (ID not on well)	Cornfields, Ariz.
12-7-12-Ellison Dug Well	Cove, Ariz.
8A-179	Dennehotso, Ariz.
08A-180	Dennehotso, Ariz.
17M-66 (Ganado)	Ganado, Ariz.
8K-433-Old Number 8A-299	Kayenta, Ariz.
5M-74-Box Springs (Black Falls)	Leupp, Ariz.
17T-559 Lower Greasewood	Greasewood
10T-241A	Many Farms
Monument Pass Well	Oljato, Utah
9Y-12	Red Mesa, Ariz.
9Y-32	Red Mesa, Ariz.
16T-519-Largo Corral Well	Smith Lake, N.M.
9T-550	Sweetwater, Ariz.
9T-586	Sweetwater, Ariz.
10R-51 B	Tselani, Ariz.

Other contaminants that are harmful to humans have been frequently found in livestock wells. Navajo Nation policy is that livestock-use-only wells are not to be used for human drinking water.

For more information about livestock well sampling results and regulated sources of safe drinking water, please contact:

Navajo Public Water System Supervision Program

(928) 871-7715

www.navajopublicwater.org